BARCLAY & COMPANY, LIMITED, 1 PALL MALL EAST.

London Library,
St. James's Square, S.W.

The Library offers to its Members over 220,000 volumes selected from the literature of all countries, including a large proportion of old and valuable Works not supplied by ordinary Circulating Libraries.

Additions are continually made, both of the standard Works of the day and of older and rarer Books.

Fifteen volumes at a time are allowed to Country Members; Ten to residents in London. For every extra pound per annum, an additional number of Volumes may be had at the rate of five Volumes at one time of old Works, or the supply of any new Work (provided it is already in the Library) by the purchase of another copy.

Fourteen days are allowed for the perusal of new Books (i.e. Books published within the last twelve months), and two months for Books of older date.

The Reading Room, which is open daily from Ten to Half-past Six, is furnished with Periodicals, English and Foreign, together with a selection of new Books for use in the room only.

The Library is closed three days at Easter, three days at Christmas, and on Whit-Monday and August Bank Holiday.

Subscribers are admitted on the recommendation of a Member, subject to the approval of the Committee.

C. T. HAGBERG WRIGHT,
Secretary and Librarian.

1910.

NOTE

THIS SUPPLEMENT contains all the books added from March 1, 1909, to March 1, 1910.

Several sets, Grævius, Thesaurus antiq. & hist. Italiæ; Königlich-Preuss. Akad. d. Wissenschaften zu Berlin, Abhandlungen; Romanische Forschungen; Scienze Storiche, Congresso Internaz.; Smithsonian Institution, the mere titles of which appeared in the Catalogue, or which have been recently acquired, have been catalogued in a detailed manner.

An asterisk indicates that the book was published anonymously. A few cross-references omitted in the Catalogue and Supplements have been inserted in this Supplement; a † has been printed against these.

Several volumes which are described as "wanting" in the Catalogue have been purchased, and therefore it is essential to consult both the Catalogue and the Supplements.

It has not been thought necessary to repeat information about pseudonyms anonymous books, &c., already given in the Catalogue of 1903 and Supplements.

The price of this Supplement is 2*s.* unbound; 3*s.* 6*d.* bound, to Members. A case to contain 4 unbound Supplements, 1*s.* 6*d.*
